WELCOME MESSAGE

On behalf of the organizing committee I am glad to welcome you to Collingwood to this year's annual scientific meeting of the Society of Rural Physicians. Once again there is a full and varied schedule, based largely on small group sessions allowing you to interact both with the speakers and with each other. I know you will find it an enjoyable and rewarding experience and I hope you will take advantage of the location and explore all that the Collingwood area has to offer. I look forward to seeing you all in April.

Peter Hutten-Czapski
Haileybury Ontario
Organizing Committee Chair

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

To provide a forum for the exchange of information between physicians and nurses in small communities as well as with their urban counterparts to whom they refer patients.

To provide a forum that will discuss issues, present initiatives and foster networks of collaboration between rural physicians and allied health care workers.

To provide practical information and the opportunity to develop skills for the treatment and management of common clinical problems in rural areas.

This program has been rated at the following hours of CME: Thursday 5.5 hours, Friday 6.5 hours, Saturday 6.5 hours

TRANSPORTATION

The SRPC has arranged a shuttle service with Destination Blue to take you to and from Toronto International Airport, and Blue Mountain Resort. If you are interested in this service please indicate this on the registration form, or register online at www.srpc.ca/rr2011 or contact the SRPC at 1-877-276-1949 or info@srpc.ca

You can also organize your own car rental or use Simco (705-728-1148) or Sinton (705-446-1196) taxi services or Airline Limo (905-676-3210) from the airport.

ACCOMMODATIONS

There is a wide variety of lodging in the conference room block at Blue Mountain Resort, from studio rooms to 3 bedroom suites and chalets. Closest to the conference site are the Mosaic apartments and River Grass condos. Phone 877-445-0231 and quote "CRES1107261" for reservations at discounted conference rates. To view the rooms visit www.bluemountain.ca/lodging_quickfacts.htm

STUDENTS AND RESIDENTS

The Rural Ontario Medical Program is organizing billeting for students and residents. For more information contact Lindsey Rideout at (877) 445-7667 or lrideout@romponline.com

THE RURAL SPOUSE

Join us and meet other rural spouses! There is a nominal charge for the spouses of registrants who wish to more fully participate in the academic portion of the program. The fee is not required for participation in the social aspects of the meeting nor to make use of the hospitality room, to attend plenary sessions nor to participate in the coffee break conversations and the conspiracies in the corridors. It is for those who wish to enrol in some of the breakout sessions. See page 10 for more details on social events and see the insert in this booklet for registration.

CHILDCARE (REGISTRATION FOUND ON INSERT)

Daycare services are available. If you are interested in using or volunteering for this service please contact Jennifer at 1-877-276-1949 or by email at jenniferm@cjrm.net for further details. Evening sitter services can be arranged.

081	PIGMENTED LESIONS — WHEN TO BIOPSY WHOM	Jessica Howard, Ilderton, ON
① ② ③	Pigmented lesions are everywhere in family practice. This talk will help one decide who to biopsy, when, and in what case. (Limit of 30)	∞
082	ORIENTATION STRATEGIES FOR YOU AND YOUR LEARNER	James Goertzen, Thunder Bay, ON
⑤ ⑥	Rural clinical teaching can be demanding for preceptors due to the competing responsibilities for patient care and learner supervision. Simultaneously, residents and students are challenged by competing demands of patient care, program academic requirements, study time, and personal/family issues. Effective orientation strategies bridge learner and preceptor responsibilities and form the foundation step of a useful clinical teaching framework: Before/During/After.	(2 hrs) Part 1 ∞ §
083	RURAL CRITICAL CARE MODULE — AIRWAY MANAGEMENT	Samuel Appavoo, Goderich, ON
④ ⑤	MainProC - The necessary skills are highly technical and relatively rarely used. Most of us have little chance to practice between critical cases. This module presents an overall game plan and algorithm for emergency airway management by rural physicians.	(2 hrs) Part 1 $ ∞ §
084	JOINT INJECTIONS	J. Matt Di Stefano, Collingwood, ON
① ②	Demonstration of joint injection techniques with emphasis on the shoulder.	∞

100	THE LITTLE HOSPITAL THAT DOES... RESEARCH	Ken Milne, Goderich, ON
⑨	There is a medical myth that "excellence" in care is inversely related to distance from a tertiary centre. Yet the evidence does not support this commonly held belief. At the end of his session this medical myth will be busted. Participants will know about the recently published research demonstrating the excellent and timely care in a number of areas. These include time to emergency care and length of stay, pain control, thrombolysis for acute myocardial infarction and antibiotics for pneumonia.	∞
101	CONTRACEPTION UPDATE	Patty Vann, Dryden, ON
①	This session is an update for rural physicians, new contraceptive options for women.	(Limit of 30) ∞

120 MCI AND DEMENTIA — PART I Linda Lee, Kitchener, ON
 Ⓞ? Cognitive testing and clinical differentiation of types of dementia in family practice. (Attendance at this workshop required for workshops 140 and 160) ∞

121 SHOULDER: BRIEF FUNCTIONAL REVIEW AND PHYSICAL EXAM Steve Coupland, Sioux Lookout, ON
 ⓄⓈ Please come wearing a t-shirt. This workshop is not designed to present new information, but rather to be hands on review for those who aren't comfortable with their physical examination and would like some practice. Musculoskeletal medicine is different than many other aspects of primary care. It is quite biomechanical and relies on information from your hands more than many of the other organ systems, and this makes the physical examination quite important. It does however, require a bit of practice to be performed comfortably. In this workshop I am going to avoid complex anatomical diagrams, and instead review the anatomy in functional terms fairly quickly. I will present the sport medicine shoulder examination, demonstrating on a live model, explaining the significance of each step and the findings. From there the principles of treatment will be evident and if time permits, we will review these. However, the focus is going to be the examination and the opportunity to practice it on each other. - 168 NETWORKING AND COLLABORATION — RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES Michael Jong, Susan Chatwood, Ray Bollman & Kris Aubrey-Bassler
 (2 hrs) Part 1
- 169 PHYSICIAN BURNOUT Joseph Lee, Kitchener, ON
- 170 INTERDISCIPLINARY EDUCATION AND COLLABORATIVE TEAM BASED CARE Jenny May, Tamworth, NSW
 This workshop is appropriate for all health care providers and educators who are interested in policy and experience in other countries. While team based care is becoming the cornerstone of best practice in chronic disease management and primary care the challenge for clinicians has been the “how to” at the coal face. In Australia recent changes of national health policy has vested prescribing and billing rights to nurses as well as moves to trial voluntary enrolment. The impact in rural is likely to be slow as new practitioner numbers are small and patients have defacto enrolment in practices due to their rural locations. So how do old dogs learn new tricks? Especially when the collaboration and team based care has happened by necessity so some of the initiatives are not new tricks anyway? but the rules have changed. This session will describe the current Australian climate in interdisciplinary care and impacts on practice from the perspective of a rural GP.
- 171 CARDIAC DIAGNOSTIC TESTS — WHICH TEST TO ORDER? WHAT TO DO WITH THE RESULTS Masis Perk, Truro, NS
 Case based discussions (ER and office cardiology). (Limit of 50)

- 188 NETWORKING AND COLLABORATION — RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES Michael Jong Et Al
 Part 2 (continuation - see 168)
- 189 MEDICINE AND MOTHERHOOD Mary Johnston, Blind Bay, BC
 Not only the decisions and issues but maybe the practical management of 'Having it all'. I benefit from the practicality of having 1 in med school, 1 in residency, and 2 in full time practice. Somehow my kids have turned out fine and somehow, and not sure how or why, I still practice medicine and enjoy it most of the time. I still love to see my kids and just spent the weekend with grandchildren.

- 247 RECOGNIZING & HELPING WITH FETAL ALCOHOL SPECTRUM DISORDER: A 1ST NATIONS APPROACH Allan Mountford, Janetville, ON
 ② Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder (FASD) is a spectrum of medical, learning, and behavioral disorders symptomatic of organic brain damage caused by pre-natal exposure to alcohol. Research tells us that the incidence and effects of FASD are more pronounced in some of our aboriginal communities. FASD is a lifetime challenge; it does not go away, nor is there a cure. This presentation will explore how medical practitioners might better understand the disorders associated with in utero alcohol exposure and provide effective intervention. (2 hrs) Part 1 ∞ §
- 248 THE ACUTE ABDOMEN Michael Lisi, Collingwood, ON
 ⑤
- 249 RURAL CRITICAL CARE MODULE - ULTRASOUND IN RURAL PRACTICE Michael Jong Et Al

- 253 BORDERLINE PERSONALITY DISORDER: MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES FOR THE OFFICE AND ED James Goertzen, Thunder Bay, ON
 ① ? Patients with a borderline personality disorder struggle with instability in self image, affect regulation, impulse control, and interpersonal relationships. Frequent self injury and testing of patient physician boundaries can lead to frustration and/or burnout for family physicians as they encounter these patients in their offices or while covering the emergency department. Effective management strategies incorporate principles from dialectical behavioral therapy that can be readily embraced by family physicians and applied within their clinical settings. ☞

PALS

Pediatric Advanced Life Support

Renewal Course

May 4th, 2011

The PALS course gives healthcare professionals the knowledge and skills to better recognize and treat critically ill infants and children. The course uses a scenario-based, team approach to teach pediatric emergency management of pediatric patients approaching or already in respiratory or cardiac arrest. The course covers treatment beyond the first few emergency minutes and goes through stabilizing patients or transport phases of a pediatric emergency, in or out of the hospital.

Course fees: $350.00 and Manual: $65.00 plus applicable tax
 Register for PALS using the SRPC Pre Conference Course Registration.

ACLS

Advanced Cardiac Life Support

Renewal Course

May 4th, 2011

Learn the necessary skills to provide evidence-based care to patients in life-threatening situations. This course reinforces use of appropriate basic life support and automated external defibrillation, and then extends skills to advanced interventions.

Course fees: $350 plus applicable tax
 Register for ACLS using the SRPC Pre Conference Course Registration.
