

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF AN EBOLA DOCTOR

Dr. Paul Dillon will discuss and share his experiences working as an Ebola Doctor in the Red Zone during the recent Ebola Crisis in West Africa. He was a physician with Save the Children UK in the Kerry Town Ebola Treatment Centre in Sierra Leone.

1. Learn about Ebola Virus transmission, treatment, and research during the epidemic 2. Lessons learned about working in austere humanitarian settings 3. Challenges to be expected while working in an Ebola setting and reintegration challenges upon return