

NATIONAL ADVOCACY FOR RURAL MEDICINE

1. At the conclusion of this activity, participants will be able to identify several pressing areas of medical care in rural Canada which require active advocacy plans. It is hoped that this can be translated into concrete steps to advance improvement. Previously successful resources will be recognized, and a proposal for national level cooperation will be presented.